- 9.6. Tenders which are in full conformity with tender requirements and conditions shall be declared as Responsive Tender for opening Envelope no. 2 in the website and Envelope No. 2 (Commercial bid) of such tenderer shall be opened later. HBPCCL will not inform individual bidders about their technical qualification. It will be uploaded directly on website.
- 9.7. The Purchaser will award the contract to the successful tenderer whose tender has been determined to be responsive and has been determined as lowest tender.
- 9.8. The Purchaser reserves the right to increase or decrease the quantity and also reserves the right to cancel or revise or any of the whole tender or any part of tender without giving any reasons thereto with no cost to the Purchaser.
- 9.9. Only L1 bidder will be called for negotiation with our purchase committee.
- 9.10. In case of L1 bidder is unable to supply goods, purchaser (HBPCCL) may approach L2, L3 and so on, however, then will be required to supply at L1 rates.
- 9.11. Only those bidders who are technically qualified will be considered for the opening of commercial bid.

10. Security Deposit:

- 10.1 The successful bidder shall submit a security deposit of Rs.6,00,000/- (Rs.Six Lakhs only) within 08 days from the issuance of the Purchase order, by way of a Demand Draft. Failure to submit the security deposit within the stipulated period may result in cancellation of the Purchase order. The security deposit will be refunded to the successful bidder upon completion of the purchase order contract period. HBPCCL reserves the legal right to cancel the purchase order at any time during the contract period.
- 10.2 The Security Deposit shall be forfeited: In case of a successful Tender, if the tenderer fails to supply as per our requirement and as per terms and conditions.

11. Period of Contract:

- 11.1 The period of contract is two years from purchase order date or the completion of total supply quantity as per e-tender BOQ.
- 11.2 Delivery as and when required by the user department for the period of two year. If material quality and supply of material found satisfactory within contract period, then the contract period would be extended for further one (01) year with same rates, terms and conditions. (Contract period review will be taken while extending contract period)
- 11.3 50% (maximum) additional quantity may be added to tender quantity any time during one year of Purchase Order period as and when required by HBPCCL as per Govt. of Maharashtra GR dt.01.12.2016.

12. Default Clause / Cancellation on failure to supply:

If the supplier fails to commence services as scheduled or to deliver the services ordered to him within the period stipulated in the contract, it shall be discretion of the purchaser either (a) to extend the period or (b) to cancel the contract in whole or in part for the balance without any show cause notice. In the event of extension, liquidated damages @ 0.07% per day, will be applicable for services not rendered. If the purchaser decides to cancel the contract, the mode of repurchase will be at the discretion of the purchaser. The supplier shall be liable to pay any loss by way of extra expenditure or other incidental expenses, which the purchaser may sustain on account of such repurchase at the risk and cost of the supplier. In addition to the action above, the purchaser may debar the defaulting supplier from future orders, for maximum period of 3 years. In any case the supplier will stand debarred for future contracts for the period till extra expenditure on account of cancellation and repurchase in terms of action above is paid by the supplier or recovered from his bill for supplied services against any orders with the purchaser or his authorized consultants /agents.

13. Force Majeure

- 13.01 For purposes of this Clause, 'Force Majeure' means an event beyond the control of the Supplier and not involving the Supplier's fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may include, but are not limited to, acts of the Purchaser either in its sovereign or contractual capacity, wars or revolutions, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions and freight embargoe.
- 13.02 If a Force Majeure situation arises at any time during the subsistence of contract, the Supplier shall promptly but not later than 30 days notify the Purchaser in writing of such conditions and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the Purchaser in writing, the Supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the Contract as far as is reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.
- 13.03 Force Majeure will be accepted on adequate proof thereof.
- 13.04 If contingency continues beyond 30 days, both parties will mutually discuss and decide the course of action to be adopted. Even otherwise contingency continues beyond 60 days then the purchaser may consider for termination of the contract on pro-rata basis.

14. Confidentiality

Information relating to the examination, clarification, evaluation, and comparison of tenders, and recommendations for the award of a Contract shall not be disclosed to tenderer or any other persons not officially concerned with such process until the notification of Contract award is made. Any effort by the tenderer to influence the Purchaser in the Purchaser's bid evaluation, bid comparison, or contract award decisions may result in the rejection of the Tenderer's bid.

15. Payment

- a. Payment shall be made 60 days in Indian Rupees after submission of bills from successful bidder. (45 days in case of MSME bidder)
- b. The purchaser shall have every right to deduct from the payment due to the supplier any amount due on account of loss, compensation, or any remedial action in monetary terms due from the supplier to the purchaser. The supplier shall not agitate the said issue in future.

16. Corrupt or Fraudulent Practices

16.1 The Purchaser as well as Tenderer shall observe the highest standard of ethics during the procurement and execution of such contracts.

16.2 “Corrupt practice” means the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in contract execution;

16.3 “Fraudulent practice” means a misrepresentation or omission of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of purchaser and includes collusive practice among Tenderer (prior to or after tender submission) designed to establish tender prices at artificial non-competitive levels and to deprive the Purchaser of the benefits of free and open competition.

16.4 “Collusive practice” means a scheme or arrangement between two or more tenderer, with or without the knowledge of the Purchaser, designed to establish tender prices at artificial, non competitive level;

16.5 “Coercive practice” means harming or threatening to harm, directly or indirectly, persons or their property to influence their participation in the procurement process or effect the execution of the contract.

16.6 “The Purchaser will reject a tender for award if it determines that the tenderer recommended for award has directly or through an agent engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for the contract in question;

16.7 The Purchaser will declare a firm or individual as ineligible, either indefinitely or for a stated period of time, to be awarded a contract if it at any time determines that they have, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive or coercive practices in competing for, or in executing, a contract.

17. General Clauses

- 17.1 Resolution of dispute: In the event of any question, dispute or differences in respect of contract or terms and conditions of the contract or interpretation of the terms and conditions or part of the terms and conditions of the contract arises, the parties may mutually settle the dispute amicably.
- 17.2 Arbitration: In the event of failure to settle the dispute amicably between the parties, the same shall be referred to the sole arbitrator, Government of Maharashtra. The award passed by the sole Arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties. The arbitration proceedings shall be carried out as per the Indian Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 and the rules made hereunder.
